SUBJECT: EMPLOYMENT OF VETERANS WITH DISABILITIES PUBLIC HEARINGS NOTICE

The notice, Employment of Veterans with Disabilities PUBLIC HEARINGS, provides information regarding a series of public hearings for partners in One-Stop Career Centers, veteran's organizations and service providers who work with veterans with disabilities.

The Public Hearings are being conducted by the California Governor's Committee on Employment of People with Disabilities (Governor's Committee). The purpose of the hearings is to gather recommendations on better alignment of State provided employment services for veterans with disabilities.

One of the goals of the Governor's Committee is to ensure services are in place for veterans with disabilities to obtain and retain employment. The Governor's Committee is obtaining information from veterans accessing services and from organizations providing the services. At locations noted on the electronic link to this Information Bulletin, public hearings are scheduled to be held in:

- Los Angeles on February 27, 2007
- San Diego on March 1, 2007
- Sacramento on March 22, 2007
